FOUR SEASONS ORLAND AT WALD DISNEY WORLD RESORT

FOUR SEASONS

RESORT

SCOTTSDALE AT TROON NORTH

OCEANR collaborated closely with the Four Seasons Resort Scottsdale at Troon North, Arizona to create a retail collection that reflected the local desert landscape. Organic cotton was a key material used in the creation of this retail range designed to cater for the entire family, all oriented around the warm colour palette of Arizona. Similarly, we brought this same desert-inspired palette into the resort's pool uniform collection, where we placed an outline of the surrounding landscape across the back of the team's polo shirts.

We partnered with Four Seasons Resort Palm Beach, Florida to work on a solution for cross-functional apparel needs. Each collection was distinct and striking, all while remaining intrinsically linked through the playful pink and blue colour scheme. The shared, bespoke details between the uniform and retail collection worked to boost brand recognition between the pool and retail environments and enhance overall guest experience at the resort.

FOUR SEASONS RESORT LANGKAWI

This collaboration was an effective demonstration of the wide-ranging capabilities of the OCEANR design and production teams. The collection that we worked on with Four Seasons Resort Langkawi, Malaysia was diverse — it contained rash guards, board shorts, tech tees, leggings, water bottles, compact beach towels, and caps. The design on each item was unique but intrinsically linked through a colour palette drawn from the local landscape, and artwork featuring local flora and fauna. We also utilised a number of production techniques on this collection from sublimation printing to embroidery.
