WHAT WE HAVE DONE BEFORE

OCEANR has partnered with Red Sea resorts to deliver bespoke retail and uniform collections that express each property's identity.

From concept to production, we developed custom designs and specified lower-impact materials suited to warm, coastal environments.

The result: apparel that enriches the guest experience, carries the brand story with integrity, and supports commitments to responsible, regenerative tourism.

For St. Regis Red Sea, OCEANR developed a refined, plain-colour uniform program that honours the brand's timeless elegance while performing in a coastal, high-activity setting. The capsule centres on clean green, navy, and beige tones, delivering a cohesive, premium look that elevates service presence across pool, beach, and resort environments.

THE RED SEA
EDITION

For The Red Sea EDITION, OCEANR delivered a striking, monochrome capsule that feels unmistakably EDITION; clean, modern, and iconic. Working within a black-and-white palette, we crafted standout pieces that use the hotel's fan-coral silhouette as a signature graphic and textural motif, applied with refined placements and finishes for maximum impact.

Nujuma

A RITZ-CARLTON RESERVE

For Nujuma, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve, OCEANR designed an activity-ready uniform program guided by the resort's brand book and signature colour palette. Built for frequent ocean experiences, the capsule pairs elevated simplicity with performance: rash vests, performance polos and standard polos for breathable polish; navy board shorts for durability; and versatile hybrid trousers and shorts in beige without logos for a refined, mix-and-match foundation, finished with a coordinating cap to complete the look.

ميرافال البحر الأحمر
MIRAVAL™
the red sea

For Miraval Red Sea, OCEANR created a serene, wellness-led retail and active collection that aligns seamlessly with the resort's new brand guidelines. We translated the property's neutral palette: beiges, creams, soft greens, and pale blues; into refined silhouettes and breathable performance fabrics. Building on this, OCEANR is currently designing Miraval Red Sea's uniform program to extend the brand aesthetic across guest-facing teams.
